Chief Clerk of the House

DATE: March 1, 1996

SUBJECT: SB 2832 - HB 3131

This bill, if enacted, will recognize a legally adopted person as an instate resident for tuition purposes, if such person's adoptive parents are Tennessee residents.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be minimal, since the University of Tennessee and the Tennessee Board of Regents have already adopted this policy.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.
